Old Business: Renewal season is here. Steve is accepting Club renewals.

Approximately 20% of the current members have renewed. Remember AMA must be renewed before January 1, if you want to fly on New Year's Day.

Christmas Party – Scheduled for December 19 at Severna Park Community Center, everyone to bring a covered dish.

Compact of field- will be done in spring monies have been allotted in budget.

New Business – A review of the proposed budget for next indicates the Club will be in the deficit spending mode. There are a few things that were discussed to resolve this situation. We need to get more people interested in becoming members and we need to consider raising the dues for 2016. The dues increase was discussed at length. There were several options discussed and we will bring those options to the members in the January regular meeting.

The Club will need to renew the Club Charter, DNR Lease, and Insurance policy in the first quarter
